Message from the Chairman

Hello Stoneybrooke! The annual SCA meeting was held on May 24 and I'm excited to be a part of the next wave of SCA involvement as Chairman. The SCA was formed in 1971 "to promote the interests of the residents of Stoneybrooke subdivision in improving our community, and in promoting the growth and development of the children residing in Stoneybrooke subdivision, and in living in a friendly community." The SCA Board members (myself, Jason Prokop, Jo Butler, Rachel Cramer, and Mark Husband) and the various committees will use this purpose as defined in the SCA's Articles of Incorporation to shape and influence future activities. You can find this, and several other community resources, on the refreshed Stoneybrooke web site (Thank you Webmaster Rachel Cramer): <http://www.stoneybrooke.org/>

In addition to a refreshed web presence, the reconstituted SCA board and committees' efforts are initially focused on several areas:

- Regular SCA meetings to be held at minimum of three times a year (May, September, and January). Specific days and times are TBD. We look forward to discussing upcoming SCA events, providing local community updates, and bringing in guests from the area (past guests have included State Senator, District Supervisor, School Board members, and Fairfax Police Department).
- Welcoming our new residents with a warm reception and relevant welcoming packet. As current residents, if there is any specific information or recommendation you wish you had received, we welcome all suggestions. Welcoming Committee lead: Dona Sauer
- Planning and coordinating SCA community gatherings such as block parties and holiday events. If you have any suggestions, feel free to write to events@stoneybrooke.org or come and discuss at our next SCA meeting in September! Social / Event leads: Mike Lamarra, Melissa Hendrix, and Anne Carter
- Integrating within our local community to provide Stoneybrooke with the latest information on upcoming projects and land-use. These plans and projects can have significant impacts upon each of us from our daily commutes to our long-term property values. Land Use lead: Tom Frick
- Modernizing our SCA processes to leverage technology for improved communications through use of digital tools. This should include acceptance of online payment in addition to cash and check for the $20 annual SCA dues. Webmaster: Rachel Cramer

To provide a bit of background information about myself, please see a brief bio below: William (Bill) Dorr, along with his wife Jennifer, moved January 2009 into Stoneybrooke, which is now his longest residency having grown up as an Army brat then spending four years in the Army as a Signal Corps Officer. Bill and Jennifer can be seen during nice weather walking their dogs (black lab Nina and terrier mix Twyla) around the block.

Bill is an IT-focused government contractor with a Bachelor of Science in Engineering from Loyola University in Baltimore, Maryland and a Master of Science in Administration from Central Michigan University. When not busy with work and playing with the pups, Bill enjoys DIY home renovations, tinkering with technology, watching sports and spending a lazy weekend day firing up the BBQ smoker.

I look forward to getting to know and working with all SCA members for continual community improvement.

Message from Supervisor McKay

Summer is officially here! With longer days and hopefully more time to spend with your family, there is much to do and look forward to here in Lee District and throughout Fairfax County.

It's the best time of year to check out some of our awesome parks. Our wetlands restoration at Huntley Meadows Park was named the best restoration of a Virginia park by the Virginia Recreation and Park Society last year. The wetlands are now healthier than they've been in two decades. Take a walk on the boardwalk and see the crown jewel of Lee District in its peak season. Lake Accotink, home of many of your favorite summer activities, is hosting some great events this summer including campfires on select Saturday nights, and as always, have plenty of bikes and boats that you can rent, miniature golf, and their antique carousel.

The Fairfax County Park Authority (FCPA) is again offering some great summer camps. There are a number of camps available, from sports camps to aquatic camps, from science camps to arts and crafts and many more. FCPA's summer camps are for all ages and are still available for registration.

There's a lot going on at Lee District Park, too. In addition to Lee District RECenter's usual offerings, our Special Harbor Spray Park is now open. The family favorite in our own backyard is open every day. Finally, don't forget about Lee District Nights, the Fairfax County Park Authority's summer entertainment series held at the Lee District Amphitheater. There is a wide variety of great music from jazz to rock and roll, to folk and country. The concerts are every Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. and run through the end of August. It's a great opportunity to bring a picnic and enjoy these great free concerts. A member of my staff will be there every week to answer any questions or concerns you might have.

If you have any questions or want to know more about what's going on in Lee this summer, give my office a call at 703-971-6262. I hope to see you out and about this summer.

Stoneybrooke Social Lights (reprinted from last month)

From our new community Social committee/event planning, headed by Michael Lamarra:

1) Planning is beginning for our next yard sale in October.

- If you have ideas about it, write me at yardsale@stoneybrooke.org
- If you KNOW you will be taking part, write me at yardsale@stoneybrooke.org with "yes" in the subject line and your address as the message; your name is optional
- If you THINK you will be taking part, write me at yardsale@stoneybrooke.org with "maybe" in the subject line and your address as the message; your name is optional
- The idea is to have an online map that highlights the sellers' houses for the people who want to come to the yard sale, letting them know every place they should check while they are here.

2) Write me at events@stoneybrooke.org with your interest in being part of groups that

- Play basketball
- Play tennis
- Play bridge or other card games
- Play chess or other board games
- Play online games
- Like to walk
- Want to explore Huntley Meadows
- Want to walk dogs together

...anything else you think has group potential
